

Run for women's safety

Staff Reporter / Kharghar
TO mark its Foundation Day, Saraswati Education Society (SES) organized a marathon here on September 21 on the theme 'Women's safety and Students wellness'.

The marathon got a good response with more than 1000 students participating from all over Maharashtra.

The Marathon was classified in three categories.

SES Secretary Vrushali Deshmukh in her speech stressed that the event is to make awareness about women's safety which is nowadays deteriorating, and to create an environment wherein women can move freely in today's competitive world.

Saraswati College of Engineering Principal Manjusha Deshmukh spoke on pressing issues affecting students like depression, drug addiction, rash driving, etc, and advised them to avoid the path of suicide.

Prashant Thakur was the chief guest of the event.

Prof. S V Lathkar and Prof. Mandeep Kaur were the co-conveners of the marathon, while Prof. Anwar and Prof. Ram Bhise co-ordinated the programme.

The marathon winners are Nilam Rajput (1st prize), Supriya Patil (2nd) and Prienna Bhopi in the Girls 5 kms category; Shailesh (1st), Akhil Koru (2nd) and Rakesh Kumar (3rd) in the Boys 5 kms category; Sunil Prasad (1st), Dyaneshwar (2nd) and Shashi Kumar (3rd) in the Men's 10 kms category; Issac Klpremoi (1st) and David Klpratich (2nd) in the International category.
